NEWS YOU NEED TO KNOW

Disposal of Blue and Teal Letterhead, Envelopes

With the start of the fall semester Aug. 30, Atlantic Cape officially switched to its new red and blue logo. All letterhead, envelopes, business cards, folders and other materials branded with the old blue and teal logo should no longer be used. Here are some guidelines for recycling these items:

- Letterhead: Hold on to and send to the Print Shop to be turned into notepads next month
- Envelopes: May be used for internal correspondence
- Institutional Folders: May be used for internal purposes
- Business Cards: Recycle

Additionally, college relations is steadily transitioning all brochures, signs, fliers and other publications to the new color scheme and logo. If you have materials in your office that need to be branded with the new logo and colors, please send them to college relations and complete the Graphic Design Request Form at <http://www.atlantic.edu/about/relation/designForm.html>.

Construction is Coming; Sign up for Targeted Text Alerts

A series of construction projects beginning this fall will affect all campuses at varying times. Projects include installation of solar panels in parking lots at the Mays Landing and Cape May County campuses, the construction of the Science, Technology, Engineering & Math building at the Mays Landing Campus, the new Hospitality Studies Center for Workforce Training at the Worthington Atlantic City Campus, and the power plant project at the Mays Landing Campus.

College relations has set up new text alert groups for each campus that students, faculty and staff can opt in to for updates on the projects that could impact access to the campus. For up-to-the-minute bulletins on parking lot closures, restricted building access or other disruptions, sign up at <http://www.atlantic.edu/about/txtMessage.html>. If you have already signed up for Atlantic Cape text alerts, log in and add the appropriate construction group to your account.

Blood Drive Sept. 23 at Mays Landing Campus

Recycle yourself, give blood. Atlantic Cape will host an American Red Cross Blood Drive, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 23, in the gym (E-Building) at the Mays Landing Campus.

Appointments are preferred, but not required. To make an appointment, or for additional information, contact college Nurse Lisa Braunwell at ext. 5112 or lbraunwe@atlantic.edu.

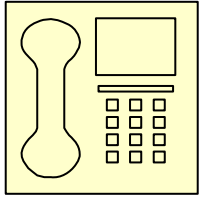

Update on Work Study Program

Please be advised that federal funding for the Federal Work Study Program has been cut for all institutions for the current 2010-11 academic year.

This program is intended to accept students on a first-come, first-served basis, but due to the college's high levels of interest this semester, the program has reached the maximum number of students eligible to participate.

As a result, the Financial Aid Office is asking all interested parties to limit the number of requests for students until time allows for a re-evaluation of the program to allow for additional students. Contact the Financial Aid Office if you require further assistance.

New Guidelines for Classroom and Hallway Telephones

At the direction of the Safe Campus Cross-functional Committee, programming changes have been made to insure all classroom telephones are standardized to ring directly to the security office at each campus. This includes computer labs, science labs and culinary kitchens in addition to all other classrooms.

If support is required in a classroom other than security, the security office will transfer the call to the appropriate office. In the event of a classroom emergency, simply removing the receiver from the telephone base will alert the security office with the room number included. If no audible response is heard, security will dispatch to the classroom.

Programming changes have been made to hallway telephones at each campus. Hallway telephones will now be dial-enabled so that faculty, staff and students can reach whichever department or office they require without entering an office to access a telephone. A list of frequently dialed offices/numbers is posted by each hallway telephone. The list will include destinations at all three campuses.

College Plans Community Day to Celebrate 5-Year Anniversary of CMCC Oct. 13

Atlantic Cape invites the college community and Cape May County residents to a Community Day to celebrate the five-year anniversary of the opening of the Cape May County Campus, 2-6 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 13, at CMCC, 341 Court House-South Dennis Road, Cape May Court House.

Community Day events include campus tours, student musicians, refreshments, a larger-than-life anniversary card for guests to sign, a chance to meet the campus dean, a live radio broadcast, and the opportunity to visit a class in session.

Information about Atlantic Cape's programs and services will be on display, including: the Academy of Culinary Arts, admissions, Technical Studies Institute, continuing education, Health Professions Institute, student services, athletics, student government and student clubs, conferencing and meeting services, alumni association, campus library, Rutgers at Atlantic Cape, Fairleigh Dickinson "Burgundy-Blue" Agreement with Atlantic Cape, and the Atlantic Cape Foundation.

Since opening its doors in 2005, the Cape May County Campus has experienced a 40 percent growth in credit enrollment; educated nearly 30 percent of all graduating Cape May County high school seniors; provided customized training to more than 40 area businesses; and played host to more than 100 public and private events.

For more information about the five-year anniversary celebration, visit <http://www.atlantic.edu/capemay/anniversary/index.html>, or contact Lisa Apel-Gendron at ext. 3619.

Open House, College Fair Planned for Oct. 3

Atlantic Cape will host an open house and the 48th Annual College Fair, 1-3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 3, at the Mays Landing Campus. During the open house, information on various college services and career and academic programs will be available. The Academy of Culinary Arts will host a concurrent open house, providing information about the culinary program, its alumni, career opportunities and job placement. Continuing Education staff will offer details on personal and professional development workshops, seminars and short-term career training.

Dozens of colleges are expected to attend, including: Penn State, Rowan, Rutgers, LaSalle and Montclair universities. The college fair is co-sponsored by the Atlantic County Branch of the American Association of University Women and the Kiwanis Club of Atlantic City.

For more information, contact Linda McLeod at ext. 5009 or e-mail mcleod@atlantic.edu. Registration for the culinary open house is encouraged at www.atlantic.edu/aca/visit.htm.

New CMCC Phone Directory Available

Not sure how to reach someone at the Cape May County Campus? A complete phone directory and fax list is available on pages 10-11 of this issue of the CommuniCator. Please print it out for future reference.

Metlife Representative to Host Retirement Workshops

Keith Bermeo, financial services representative with Metlife, will hold employee retirement workshops at the Mays Landing Campus in J-207 on the following dates:

- Thursday, Sept. 23, noon-1 p.m. and 1-2 p.m.
- Tuesday, Oct. 5, 1-2 p.m. and 2-3 p.m.
- Thursday, Nov. 11, noon-1 p.m. and 1-2 p.m.

Contact Keith at (800) 492-3553, ext. 28036, to confirm your attendance.

TIAA-CREF Consultant to Visit Mays Landing Campus

TIAA-CREF consultant Benjamin Venturo has scheduled two visits to the Mays Landing Campus during the fall semester. He will be available 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. in J-207 Tuesday, Sept. 28, and Tuesday, Nov. 30. Call (800) 842-8412 and press option "0" to make an appointment.

Food Bank Seeks Donations for Holiday Dinners

The leaves are still on the trees and it still feels like summer, yet now is the time the Community FoodBank of New Jersey thinks of Thanksgiving. "It may still be warm and sunny, but it's turkey time for us," said Margie Barham, executive director of the FoodBank's Southern Branch, which serves those in need through some 250 partner agencies in Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland and southern Burlington counties. Last year the southern branch distributed a record 5.7 million pounds of food, a 36 percent increase over the previous year, and the trend continues to grow. Unfortunately donations have not kept pace with the overwhelming demand. Contributions for the food bank to purchase needed holiday food items can be sent to:

Community FoodBank of New Jersey/Southern Branch
6735 Black Horse Pike
Egg Harbor Township, NJ 08234

Careme's Opening for Lunch with Special Menu

Careme's is open for a la carte lunch, featuring a three-course menu for $10.95 per person, not including tax and gratuity, available weekdays through Sept. 20. The a la carte menu will feature choices of appetizers, soups, salads, entree selections and desserts.

Reservations begin at 11:30 a.m. and can be made by calling ext. 4940. Regular lunch buffet and a la carte dinner will resume Sept. 23.

Art Gallery Features 18th Annual Faculty/Staff Exhibit

Lego sculptures on display by Joe D'Agostino, college relations.

Atlantic Cape's Art Gallery features the works of faculty and staff through Sept 30. This is the 18th year the gallery will showcase the works from studio arts instructors and other members of the college community. Works on display include: photographs, prints, sculpture, crafts, watercolor, mixed media, paintings and drawings.

The art gallery is located in C building (C-125), on the Mays Landing Campus. For more information, contact Buddy Jacobs, art gallery coordinator, at ext. 5346 or bjacobs@atlantic.edu. Visit the gallery online at <http://www.atlantic.edu/artgal/artgal.html>.

Fall in Love with Autumn Cooking Classes

The Academy of Culinary Arts is featuring new workshops for the amateur chef this fall.

Team up with Tailgating Extravaganza on Wednesday, Sept. 14, to score big flavors from gourmet snack foods that can be made ahead and finished at the game.

Seoul Food, on Tuesday, Oct. 5, unleashes the flavors of Korea with braised beef short ribs, bulkoki kim chee bi bimbop, and spicy tuna and rice.

Learn how to make the most important meal of the day even better with Breakfast Cooking, on Tuesday, Oct. 19.

From Salad Nicoise to Coq au Vin, discover the techniques to prepare authentic French dishes in your own kitchen in Country French, Tuesday, Nov. 9.

Cure, smoke and enjoy a variety of sausages from around the world, including: hot and sweet Italian, German bratwurst, Spanish andouille, Polish kielbasa and more in Grinding it Out, Tuesday, Dec. 7.

Seven Fishes on Tuesday, Dec. 14, explores the traditional Sicilian holiday celebration with pasta and clam sauce, baccala and calamari.

All classes take place 6-9 p.m. The fee is $65 per workshop except for Seven Fishes, which is $75. For more information, call ext. 4829, or visit www.atlantic.edu/conted.

HERE'S THE SCOOP

A message from Barbara Kozek, Continuing Education: "On behalf of the Kozek family, I would like to thank the college community for their support on Aug. 18 benefit. Your generous support and encouragement is greatly appreciated."

The family of Agnes Gallo sent a note of thanks for everyone's expressions of sympathy.

A message from Dr. Peter Mora: “I would like to thank all members of the college community for the cards, flowers, prayers, and words of comfort my family received on the passing of my beloved sister, Marie Mora. Your efforts helped ease the sorrow of our loss.”

If you like to read, especially if you’re looking for something a little different, check out the bookcase outside Elinor Mattern’s WACC office, Room 254. It is filled with a wide assortment of (free!) books from economics and history to obscure literary journals and guides to parenting. Students stop by regularly to see what’s new, and there are plenty for employees to sample as well.

The Mays Landing Campus was bustling the first week of campus. In fact, on Wednesday, Sept. 1, security directed more than 100 cars to overflow parking on the graduation field.

The Atlantic City Marathon is seeking volunteers to work the event by helping with crowd control, providing start and finish line support, passing out water and other ways. The marathon is on Sunday, Oct. 17. Volunteers are scheduled any time from 6 a.m.-3 p.m. Staff or students interested in community service can contact Beth Cipollini at abchips@comcast.net or (609) 792-7482.

NEWS FROM ATLANTIC CAPE’S OTHER LOCATIONS

Greetings from the Charles D. Worthington Atlantic City Campus

By Diana Lojweski

Work is under way on the demolition of the former Fish Heads restaurant.

The fall semester kick-off was a rousing success with welcome back greetings from the Worthington Atlantic City Campus staff. Faculty and staff enjoyed special “Welcome Back Breakfasts” Sept. 7 and 8. Our bookstore and cafeteria are back in business and demolition and rebuilding of the parking lot is in full swing.

Danielle and Amir.

ESL adjunct Amir Seliman shared with us a photo of his beautiful wife, Danielle, and himself celebrating their recent wedding. Congratulations to the happy couple!

Faculty, staff and students are being reminded that everyone needs an ID that reflects the new school colors. Please stop by Room 134 for new ID cards with the red and blue logo weekdays, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Greetings from the Cape May County Campus

by Lisa Apel-Gendron

Well, the first two weeks of the semester were interesting, weren't they? But we – students, faculty and staff – all got through it!

With the semester's start, coffee and lunch service returns to CMCC Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. in the dining room, first floor. Vending machines are also available for those evening hunger pangs.

Our new librarian, Leslie Murtha, is waiting to hear from all faculty. She is happy to come to your class and provide an introduction to information literacy. Why not e-mail her and set up a date? You can reach Leslie at ext. 3713, lmurtha@atlantic.edu or you may fill out the form at <http://www.atlantic.edu/library/libraryInstructionForm.htm>. Leslie divides her time between WACC and CMCC, so please give several weeks notice, if possible.

There is plenty of coming and going between 6:30 and 7 p.m. each evening at CMCC. Daytime is equally busy, particularly in the mornings.

Speaking of the library, tutoring is up and running for fall semester. Please encourage students to stop by the library, second floor, and pick up a schedule.

The college experience expands beyond the classroom at CMCC. Student services held an entertaining two-day welcome back event for students Sept. 7-8. The days included a drunk driving obstacle course set up in the backyard. Middle Township Police monitored the event, which consisted of an obstacle course where students attempted to navigate with a golf cart at various levels of simulated intoxication. We noted by the smiles and socializing that a good and informative time was had by all. And student clubs at CMCC will start meeting very soon. Please encourage students to get involved in a club. Fine Arts Club and Campus Ambassadors meet at CMCC, while those interested in Atlantic Cape Review and Rewrites can actively participate by covering events at CMCC for ACR, or by drumming up awareness of Rewrites and encouraging CMCC students to submit their work.

After a day of breaking up cement, there is quiet on campus for evening classes Sept. 7. A crew is removing and replacing the entire CMCC sidewalk, part of which recently collapsed.

Please remind students today, Sept. 10, is the last day to withdraw from a fall credit course with a 50 percent tuition refund.

Repairs to the sidewalk leading to our main entrance began Tuesday, and they should be finished today. A significant portion of our sidewalk collapsed recently, so the area's been marked by sawhorses to keep everyone safe.

Student stars, perhaps? TV cameras were rolling Sept. 2 at CMCC. Geoff Pettifer, marketing, and a video crew from NBC-40 shot a variety of classroom and campus scenes featuring our student body. The footage will be used to promote the Oct. 15 golf outing which raises funds for student scholarships. Genuine thanks go to adjunct instructor Neil Brandt, humanities, and full-time faculty member Lenora Sheppard, math, for letting us film during their lectures. Captivating lessons!

For those not looking to earn credits, continuing education has a variety of cool classes at CMCC from which to choose. This week, Subcode Official and Conversational Spanish started. Plenty of other interesting classes begin each week.

Joann Taylor, evening faculty support, is adopting another retired greyhound. She and her husband have for many years adopted rescued greyhounds.

We say good-bye, sort of, to part-time employee Charlie Sherback, who was the ultimate utility player on the CMCC team this summer. Charlie, who teaches developmental math, helped us this summer by filling in for vacationing employees throughout the building. He worked in the library, faculty support, front desk and meeting services areas. But summer's over, and we're back to regular staffing. But Charlie teaches at CMCC Mondays and Wednesdays, so he's still on the team!

We do say goodbye to Follett bookstore employee Javier. We've enjoyed working with you, Javier, and we wish you the very best. Thom Partin, receiving, will especially miss practicing Spanish with you!

Have a worry-free weekend!

CONTINUING EDUCATION

by Sherwood Taylor

ISE reaches storage capacity: The ISE's storage space is full. Sorry to report we can no longer receive boxes and items for storage.

Open House – Casino Career Institute: The Casino Career Institute invites you to join us for a Fall Open House, 6-8 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 16. Meet with instructors to learn about careers in the gaming industry. Program representatives and coordinators will be on hand to provide information on how to begin a gaming career. Participate in hands-on demos of table games and electronic technician (formerly slot technician) classes in our fully equipped mock casino and slot lab. Light refreshments will be served. Call ext. 5600 to reserve a seat.

New Program for CCI - Certified Gaming Supervisor (CGS): Today's successful gaming supervisors must possess effective leadership, communication and team-building skills. They must keep pace with change, improve their knowledge, and share their experience with others. With the explosion of gaming all around us, well-trained and qualified supervisors are in demand. This 80-hour training program provides the fundamental skills necessary for supervisors new to the gaming industry or for those who are ready to take the next step in their careers. The class begins Oct. 18. Read the complete course description at www.atlantic.edu/ccj.

Fall Career Training Programs: The Continuing Education fall 2010 program guide is on all campuses and is arriving at homes. The fall edition of the guide lists numerous new career training programs offered this fall. Carol Fraone and Trudy Mills, CE program representatives, are available to meet with potential participants interested in our career training programs. Please direct inquiries to Carol at ext. 5650 (East Campus) and Trudy at ext. 4814 (Atlantic City Campus).

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Rita Michalenko, associate professor of art, had a busy summer. She participated in the "Raining Art" rain barrel community project for the Hammonton Arts Center in cooperation with the Hammonton Green Committee to help the environment as well as a fundraiser for the center. She was interviewed by The Press of Atlantic City, Hometown section (Egg Harbor City, Hammonton, and Mullica Township) as a participating artist for this project. NBC-40 covered the opening of the exhibit Aug. 26, where the public could meet more than 35 artists. The rain barrels will be on display at the Hammonton Arts Center or you can view them online by going to Hammonton Arts Center website, <http://hammontonartscenter.webs.com/rainingartrainbarrel.htm>. The barrels will be auctioned off on eBay. Search “Hammonton Raining Art.”

Rita also exhibited two paintings in the “Blast from the Past” art show at the Hammonton Arts Center in August. She exhibited three painting in the Mays Landing Library with the Studio Artist of the Riverfront Renaissance Center of the Arts; exhibited three handmade books, made from handmade paper and recycled materials for the Works on Paper show at the Hammonton Arts Center. The show runs through Sept. 24. She received an Honorable Mention for the books.

Rita is also: exhibiting three painting and sketches in the Atlantic Cape Faculty/Staff Annual Art Exhibit in the gallery on the Mays Landing Campus through the end of the month; and exhibiting a pastel painting “Along the Cohansey” in the “Nature and Landscape, An Environmental Perspective,” a regional Wetlands Competition at Gallery 50, Bridgeton, through Sept. 25

Former English adjunct Jamey Gallager will make a presentation at the Two-Year College English Association Conference in Washington, D.C., later this fall.

ATLANTIC CAPE IN THE NEWS

The proposed “green” rooftop at the planned Hospitality Studies Center for Workforce Training at the Worthington Atlantic City Campus was included in a Press of Atlantic City article about the ACUA exploring green roofs. http://www.pressofatlanticcity.com/news/breaking/article_02102df6-baf1-11df-8c2e-001cc4c002e0.html

A front-page Press of Atlantic City article about the trend of renting college textbooks featured Atlantic Cape and the new rental option the Follett bookstore offers. http://www.pressofatlanticcity.com/news/top_three/article_d214cb60-b88f-11df-b9e6-001cc4c03286.html

Adjunct instructor and real estate agent Philip Golden was featured in a Press of Atlantic City article about breaking into a real estate career in the current housing market. http://www.pressofatlanticcity.com/business/article_5ce4a86d-cf61-50b8-9f82-296bcd912bd4.html

A Cape May County Herald article brought attention to Atlantic Cape and the fact its 2 percent tuition increase for the 2010-2011 school year was the lowest in the state. <http://www.capemaycountyherald.com/article/schools/court+house/65909-atlantic+cape%E2%80%99s+tuition+hike+lowest+state>

A news release about free workforce training workshops offered through continuing education was printed in the Cape May County Herald.

Geoff Pettifer, director of college marketing, was quoted in the article “8 Ways to Build Community with Social Media,” in the August/September issue of Community College Journal. The article cited Atlantic Cape as a “model college” for social media practices.

Patty Wristbridge, an ACA graduate, was featured in The Press of Atlantic City about her role as director of catering and special events at Mays Landing Golf & Country Club.

SAFETY TIP

Ever wonder what to do with your old batteries? Proper disposal of batteries depends on the type of battery. Alkaline manganese batteries are standard household batteries used in toys, remote controls, flashlights, etc. These batteries no longer contain heavy metals and can be placed directly in the trash. However, rechargeable batteries contain either nickel-cadmium or lithium and must be collected for recycling. Lead-acid batteries are used in the golf carts and need to be collected for recycling. Contact Deanne Gipple, chemical compliance specialist, at dgipple@atlantic.edu for further instructions.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The calendar is updated regularly at <http://www.atlantic.edu/calendars/index.php>. Be sure to add your events. Go to www.atlantic.edu and at the top right, click on calendars. Scroll down and at the bottom left, select Add Event Form and submit your event!

Next CommuniCator Sept. 24

The next issue of the Atlantic Cape CommuniCator will be Friday, Sept. 24. Please note, there is an early deadline, noon, Friday, Sept. 17. Please e-mail your submissions to sclapp@atlantic.edu.
