Atlantic Cape Community College
Off-Campus Housing Information

Atlantic Cape Community College is a comprehensive, student-centered institution of higher education that prepares students to live and work in the 21st century. Located in Mays Landing, New Jersey, Atlantic Cape is minutes away from Atlantic City and Cape May New Jersey.

The Academy of Culinary Arts, located on the campus of Atlantic Cape Community College, is designed to prepare you for the real world challenges of the food and beverage industry. The academy features first-rate facilities that allow a well-rounded mix of classroom learning and hands-on experience. Students can pursue an Associate in Applied Science (AAS) degree in Culinary Arts, Associates in Applied Science (AAS) in Food Service Management or specialize in a variety of different programs including Hot Food, Catering and Baking/Pastry.

The purpose of this brochure is to provide the student with resources that will assist in the apartment search. The college is not affiliated with any of the resources listed. It is the student’s responsibility to fully inspect the property before entering into a lease agreement. Atlantic Cape does not inspect, approve or supervise any non-college sponsored housing.

Housing Quick Facts

- In addition, Atlantic Cape compiles a current housing list of various apartments in and around the college community
- Atlantic Cape maintains a listing of students seeking off-campus housing roommates

Apartment Hunting Helpful Hints

- Keep in mind that rent will vary according to factors such as location, size condition and special features
- Rent does not necessarily include your utilities such as water, heat and electric
- Before signing a lease or rental agreement, make sure that you read and understand everything in the contract. Keep a copy of everything you sign
- Speak with rental agent or resident manager. Identify the units that are expected to be available as well as occupancy dates
- Think about your safety first and foremost