Robin Wesner is a resident of Linwood, NJ and has a BS degree in Education from the University of Tampa. A self-taught artist who paints with a palette knife, Robin has completed over 80 large works in acrylic on canvas. The artist has developed a unique style of abstraction that takes an original approach to depict the floral subject on canvas. An Artist Member of the Noyes Museum of Art in Oceanville, NJ, Wesner has had solo exhibitions in New York City, Washington, DC and Montreal.

“My paintings originate from compositions of flowers. Working from a realistic drawing, I develop the composition through a series of sketches, extracting a language of line and color from which the final work is realized.”
