

Reporting Sexual Assault

If you or someone you know has been sexually assaulted, we can help. Here are your options:

Option 1

Speak with a CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCE (there are two types of confidential reporting resources)

Information regarding alleged sexual misconduct that is shared with these individuals cannot be shared with others without written permission except if there is a professional duty to warn (if there is a threat to harm self or others and/or if there is a report of child or elder abuse).

Under Option 1, you can call Health Services (609) 343-5112

Health Services will provide any necessary medical care

Health Services will offer a referral for a counseling appointment. Will educate victim/survivor on reporting options.

Health Services will refer victim/survivors to other resources.

Under Option 1, you can call Counseling (609) 343-5667

Counseling will recommend visit to Health Services and provide professional referrals.

Counseling will provide short-term assistance with victim/survivor to deal with emotional toll of experience. Will provide referral for long-term counseling if desired. Will educate victim/survivor on reporting options.

Option 2

A second option is to speak with a (Non-confidential) REPORTING RESOURCE (There are four types of non-confidential report resources)

These persons are legally required to report allegations of sexual misconduct to the Office of Security and Safety and Title IX Coordinator (Cynthia Correa, (609) 343-4987) or Co-coordinator (Tammy DeFranco, (609) 463-8113) once you speak to them. Before listening to a report, the following individuals will educate the victim/survivor/reporter that they are required to report what they are told to campus Safety and Security and the Title IX Coordinator. They must be certain that the reporter understands that they are not a confidential resource (see above).

Under Option 2, you can call Safety and Security (609) 343-5125

*Security will take a statement

Security will report to police (at the request of the student)

Security will file an incident report and forward report to Title IX Coordinator

Under Option 2, you can talk to with Faculty

*Faculty will report to Safety and Security, Title IX Coordinator.

Under Option 2 you can talk with Non-faculty staff

*non-faculty will report to Safety and Security, Title IX Coordinator.

Under Option 2 you can talk with Human Resources

*Will report to HR/Supervisor or appropriate designee. If a student is involved in the case, Title IX Coordinator contacted.

Human Resources will report to Safety and Security, and Title IX Coordinator

<http://atlantic.edu/studentServ/vawa.html#contact>