V. Treasurer’s Report
VI. Advisors’ Report

Next week we will have tables set up for the bake sale and also for recruitment day. Whatever information on have or want to provide for the students you should have on your table just so the students will be well informed. If you need a sigh well help you create one, and well also have a sign in sheet for the student that are interested in your club. Also received an email for campaign internships if there is anyone interested contact Doug, and he will be able to give you more information on it.
SGA Election will be next month 11th and 12th. if you are interested in joining. All of the positions will be open for everyone. If you are interested contact Doug for more information on it. Also have to vote for faculty of the year as well.
For the bake sale if you did not put in a request you cant do the bake sale.

VII. Club Coordinator’s Report

The banquet theme is masquerade this year. Its formal event, and if you want to make your on mask we might do a contest
Make sure you come out for recruitment day, and also bake sale.
Also she did not get many minuets from the clubs this past month, and make sure you give the minuets a week after.

XV. President’s Report:

Bake sale and recruitment day in this Tuesday coming up, make sure you come out to support your club.

Pieces of a dream will be here march 5th and 6th. The oldest jazz band in the country (time and date is not finalized yet)
Earth day is coming up, so make sure you start getting ideas on what your club wants to do that day
We also want to open up two new hydration Stations. One in the J-hall and one by Culinary.
The week of the 17th were going to have a lot of events. We are going to have a speaker by BSA, His name is Dr. Ellis and he masters at to present yourself for the world. Its going to be in Café B at 12:30pm

XII. Open Forum:

Atlantic city is going to have a game show day on campus, so if you would like to join or go and support them that would be great.

BSA and Lacrosse are going to join and do the talent show together. They want to put together a commit and also are open up if there are any other clubs that want to join in with them, that would be great.

For graduation it was brought up from the BSA president that being able to wear a stole during graduation would be a good idea for the students. Also for them to be recognized for all the hard work that all the students have done.

Cross cultural, trying to sell cards with a rose for the special someone that they want to give it to from 10:30am-2pm

Choir wanted to have a sing-o-gram for Valentines Day. And its to build up money for them to be able to go on trips and see other choir clubs sing.
